CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKETS.

mand For Beef Cattle.

CHICAGO, Oc., 7 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. ]-A joker, in trying to describe the wheat market to-day, called it "strong, with a declining tendency." Another added with more carnestness that it was a "bull market with relapsing indications," Still another funny man bulletined the statement that whenever a bull in the pit stops to brush a fly from his nose the price drops a sixteenth. These remarks only go to show that frivolous gentlemen can always find something to laugh at or crack a jone about. Cables ranged from steady and firm to strong, and that fact, together with the small visible stocks and a smaller increase than was expected, made the development of the local buil feeling easy. It was also predicted that to-morrow's statement will show another big decrease in the "amount on passage." These were bullish factors to-day -these and the evident determination on the part of leading local longs to maintain their position courageously. Bearish news rolled in from the northwest in great waves. The movement up there is at high pressure, and a big overflow in this direction is threatened. It has been threatened now for several days, but up to the present time it has failed to materialize, though gossips had it that 600 cars were on the way from Minneapolis. This very large statement could not be verifled. December wheat started in at 835/c. but quickly sold down to 83c on Minneapolis news. It recovered 1/c, sold off again to 83c, and then, on strong cables and returns indicating less than 1,000,000 bushels increase instead of the expected 1,500,000 bushels, the market advanced to 8334c. This proved to be the culmination of the improvement and during the last hour the price did not get far from 834c. That seemed to be the fighting point. The close was a little better, however, being 8334@8334c. May ranged at 8534c at the opening, down to 8514c. up to 85% c and later up to 86c, closing at 85%c. October closed at 81%c. Lake engagements were reported for 120,000 bushels. It is not claimed that this is for export. Snippers claim that Chicago standard grades are 4@5c above an export basis and that we are out of parity with surrounding markets. If the latter statement is wholly true ago.

There was no change in the tone of the corn market, which remained heavy and de-pressed, with no life in business. The receipts were 65 cars more than had been cal-culated upon on Saturday. Trading still partook of a local scalping character, so characteristic of it of late, and even 1,421,000 bushels decrease in the visible supply failed to bring out buyers. Fluctuations were narrow and infrequent, but generally in a downward direction, and prices worked off to a still lower level than before. The less than half what it was two years ago.

and not 40 per cent. of the total three years

closing prices were: October 30%c, November 31c, and May 33%c.

Decided weakness was the dominant feature of the oats market, an average deeine of the oats market, an average de-eine of 14@3c in prices occurring. Heavy receipts may be set down as the principal influence adverse to improvement at the present time. Shipments do not keep pace with the receipts, though a healthy outmove-ment is reported. In the speculative market today there was a heavy pressure on May, with Counselman, Sibley and other heavy weights offering property on the down scale. May opened at 2214@2254 and sold off to 2214c, closing at the inside. October sold down to 19c, November to 1954@1954c and January to 19%c. There was brisk trading in the whole list, May leading in point of interest and volume of dealings. In provisions there was considerable stir. General trading opened with a fair showing of life, and while the October deal in pork attracted more or less attention, it exerted a less depressing influence upon the market as a wohle than during last week. The dismissal of the injunction on Saturday, however, failed to change the course of the clique concerning new pork. It again refused to accept this morning tenders of it made on contracts and about 1,000 barrels of the same were sold out for "whom it may concern" under the rules. These auction sales were made at $10.30 and at $10.45. The straight delivery was sold in the open pit at $10.2734 representatives. October pork closed at $10.50, or at the same price as Saturday. Lard rather led the general trade in point of activity. It was wanted by shorts, who considered it discreet to reduce their lines in view of the large shipments, and under free buying prices were advanced 10c on October and 5@714c on November and January, For pork for November delivery the day also closed at an improvement of 21gc and for January of 71gc. Future short ribs sold up 5@736c.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. ]-CATTLE-The demand, as was the case last week, centered on best, either natives, Texans or rangers, such making equally as good prices as last week. Other classes, as was the case last week, were the last to sell, dragging along all day, and were fully closed out at anything like a decent offer. The pens were full of cows, natives, Texans and rangers, the number being estimated at from 6,000 to 7,000. Prices on such are extremely low, and it is almost useless to give quotations, as there is at present less to give quotations, as there is at present no values. Common grade of Texans and range steers are selling lower than last week. The stocker and feeder trade was rather neglected. Choice to extra beeves, $4.50@4.57%; medium to good steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $3.40@4.40; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs, $3.25@4.25; 950 to 1,200 lbs, $3.00@3.00; stockers and feeders, $1.75@5.00; cows. bulls and mixed, $1.00@2.75; bulk, $1.56@2.00; Texas steers, $2.10@2.75; cows. $1.35@2.00; western rangers, $2.40@ cows, $1.35@2.00; western rangers, $2.40@

Hoss—Prime, heavy and good packers were strong to 5c higher, shippers paying $4.10@4.30, and packers $3.95@4.05. Light sorts were again 10@15c lower, going as low as $4.15@4.20 for york sort and $4.20@4.25 for since sort. for singe sort.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. ]-STOCKS-There was little change for the better or worse in stocks this morning. Trusts continued to be an unstable and depressing feature, while standard stocks suffered but little and even showed small gains. The money question still confronts the market. During the first hour call rates were 6 to 8 per cent. Gossip of the street during the interim was not of a very hopeful character. Even the bulls concede that there may be some further shading of prices. A squeeze this week may catch weak holders, those who do business on good bank accounts feel quite safe. The extreme view puts the short interest in specialties at 150,000 shares. First prices showed an irregular change from Saturday's final figures, but the tone of the market was weak and declines were more numerous, Sugar being off 1/4 per cent at 83 and Cotton On % at 41. The pressure was somewhat severe on Cotton Oil at first and it retired to 39%, but Sugar soon followed with a drop to In the regular list Atchison, Burlington, Missouri Pacific, Reading, Louisville & Nashville and St. Paul were the only active stocks, and Burlington, which has shown such strength of fate, gave way 1 per cent to 109. Atchison followed with %, but the others showed only slight losses. The market met with good buying at the decline and some recovery followed. In the hour to 12 c'clock weakness was the order, Atchison went off to 3914, Burlington to 10814. Northwestern to 112, Rock Island to 100 %, St. Paul to 71%, and Missouri Pacific to 72. The exceptions to the list were Louisville up to 48% and Man-battan from 103% to 105 and off to 10414. The market was even more weak after 12 o'clock and a few stocks touched the lowest points on the decline. Among these were Atchison off to 28% and Cotton Oil at 30. Money toaned as high as 13 per cent., but yielded to 4 per cent. at the close, Manitoba was manipulated and tumbled to 111, closing at 11114, or 6% off for the day. Louisville closed 114 per cent. better at 75%. Northern Pacific preferred lost 1 per cent. to 72%. Atchison closed 1% lower at 28%. Burlington lost 36 to 108%. Rock Island closed at 100. St. Paul 10st % to 71% and Missouri Pacific 1% per cent. to 711%. Trusts closed at a little better than bottom figures at 2@314 per cent, net loss.

Cattle.

Monday, Oct. 7. Good beef cattle were again scarce, al-though there was a fair run of cattle. While the general market could only be quoted steady on such cattle as there were here, the feeling was stronger on desirable beeves. The demand was good and such cattle as the packers could use or such as they wanted sold fairly well. The cattle here were mostly all westerns, with only a few light natives, and not of very good quality on an average. There were a few fair beeves, but none that could be called choice, and the great bulk of the cattle had to be graded as feeders. Such native steers as were here sold at $3.55@3.85, while the westerns prought $2.80072.90. Butchers' stock changed hands at about steady prices, but there was not much here. A small lot of corn-fed heifers reached $2.60, but the natives sold mostly at $2.00@2.35 and westerns at $1.85@2.00. There were plenty of feeders and stockers in the yards, mostly westerns, with quite a sprink-ling of northern cattle. The market was slow all the morning and the sales were light, but still there were a number of buy-ers in the yards and quite a good many cattle were sold before the close. Natives sold at $2.40@2.67% and westerns at $2.35@2.65.

The market on heavy hogs took an upward turn to-day and could be quoted strong to 5c higher. Hogs which were good enough and suited the Hoston trade would bring 5c more than on Saturday, but other loads that did not strike the fancy of the buyers of that trade did not feel so much advance. The sales were largely at $3.9003.95, and as high as $4.00 was paid. The light hogs sold a shade easier, mostly at $3.9564.00, but there was no sorting, so that the market was not much lower than Saturday, as the sales would indicate,

The season of the year is arriving when light hogs usually sell below heavy, and it looks now as if this would be the situation here before long. Shippers would do well to anticipate it at least, and prepare the country for it. Light hogs declined about 40c in Chicago during the past few days. The difference between light and heavy hogs has been narrowed down until now good heavy hogs are within 5c of light mixed hogs.

S. Tinnel, who is one of the largest feeders in this part of the country, was over from Hamburg, Ia. He marketed several hundred head last week and has a large number yet to come. L. D. Mercer, editor of the Northwestern

Live Stock Journal, was a visitor at the yards. Mr. Mercer is on his way to Chicago and will stop again on his way back. OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS.

CANCELED HER VOWS.

A Religiouse Renounces the Black Veil After Years of Trial.

It very rarely happens that a nun who has worn the black veil lays aside her religious robes and returns to the world after conventual seclusion, says a San Francisco special to the St. Louis Republic, A case of this kind, however, has just come to light in Santa Rosa, The nun was known as Sister Ger trude, but now is once more called by her former name, Miss Jessie Overton, Her father is Judge A. P. Overton, one of Santa Rosa's wealthiest and most influential citizens, and Miss Jessie is his only daughter. She was reared a protestant, but was sent to the Ursunne convent to complete her education, and embraced the Catholic faith, notwithstanding Judge Overton's strenuous opposi-tion and avowal that he would disinherit his only child. She took the veil, taught with great wisdom and success, and her father kept his word. The sis ter superior of the convent was a daughter of General Rosecraus.

As an instance of Sister Gertrude's religious fervor, it is related that just previous to Miss Overton's taking the black veil her brother was necidentally killed white out hunting, and her relatives desired her to come home tempor arily during the period of mourning The Sister Superior advised her to de so, but incidentally mentioned that temporary breaking of the inclosure would necessitate a postponement of her reception of the veil to a later date than the time originally set. Notwithstand-ing her grief she refused to leave the convent on account of this postponement. Judge Overton was greatly incensed, and driving his carriage into the convent garden, attempted to raise his daughter into the vehicle to make her come and take a last look at the dead. He failed, and, in consequence, the funeral cortege was obliged to change its intended route and pass by the convent in order that the weeping religieuse might see the coffin of her brother on its way to the grave.

After this Sister Gertrade' health failed rapidly. Her convent life was too trying for her delicate constitution, and a transfer to Ohio worked no bene fit. Meanwhile her father relented and begged her to return to her home. The Ursuline nuns lent a helping hand. anda pplied to Pore Leo for cancella tion of Sister Gertrude's vows. The favor was granted, and Miss Overton now returns, after years of separation, to her father's side and the happy home of her childhood.
